

Bob Secula was hurler.

Sunday Tilt

on reversed the formidday with a come- 5 to 3 triumph, by a pinch hit d homer by Bob a 5-hit pitching per- from Kerry Meischscoreless innings mer and Henderson oke up in a score- duel, Hampton ex- a pair of runs with e opening with a over the fence in ee singled to right as Jim Wilde triplbers, held to two he first six innings, d the range in the e seventh. Jason led to left. Dou ngled to right cen-

Baumann's neat at went for a single side of the Hamp- got their signals d failed to cover

This loaded the a, batting for Doug ipped a drive down d line. Attempting shoestring catch of e left fielder got his e sphere but failed to it with the ball nto the high grass foul line. Secula ases with the three s preceding him as lder couldn't locate on added a single- eighth, coming on e left by Lance; a oice grounder; a a walk and Tom double to right

's final tally came of the eighth. Wilde a double to center. Natta walked. An e pitcher on Bobby ounder loaded the aNatta was out at Wilde scoring on a oice grounder. Joe lked to again load A strikeout and a y to the infield and was out of the in-

Car Club

s Field Trials

SBURG, Pa.—Area owners are being nter the field trials ored Sunday, Sept. troudsburg, Pa., by o Mountain Sports The meet is to be e miles west of z on Route 209. 9:30 a. m.

marks the fifth year that Mantle has played on 100 or more occasions.

Easton's Terry Bartolet, presently enrolled as a sophomore at Harvard University, captained Easton High in his senior year in football, basketball and baseball.

Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox collected 9 hits in a double header this past week, the first man to pull off this trick since George Case, present Rutgers University coach, accomplished the same feat for the Washington Senators back in 1940.

Dave Philley, sold by the New York Giants to the Baltimore Orioles last week, has played for seven big league clubs.

John DeHaan, a back, and Larry Adams, a lineman, will co-captain this year's grid squad at Hackettstown High.

Rookie outfielder Carroll Hardy of the Boston Red Sox was an All-American football performer for Colorado University a few years back.

Professional golfing ace, Arnold Palmer, has boosted his season's earnings to above the $75,000 mark at this writing.

Robert Okner, a 1960 graduate of Newton High School, won the national D-Stock Hydroplane championship, sponsored by the American Power Boat Assn. in Beloit, Wis., last week.

Midget Gridders Will Open Season Saturday

WASHINGTON — Wash- ton's entry in the Warren County Midget Football League makes its first start of this or any other season on Saturday, tangling with the Brass Castle eleven on the latter's field. The loop officially got under- way this past weekend with Washington not scheduled. Washington will play a total of ten games, the season coming to a close on November 13.

Other teams to be met by coach Fred Bohning's squad are Lopatcong, Parochial, Alpha, Palmer Township, Phillipsburg PAL, Hackettstown, Riegel Ridge, Steele Hill and Firthtown.

The tentative starting lineups for Saturday's tilt with Brass Castle are as follows:

BRASS CASTLE		WASHINGTON
Bodine	E.	Roseberry	E.
Tomasetti	E.	Masenoir	T.
Rhinehart	T.	Kinsey	T.
Kayhart	T.	Haney	G.
Rhinehart	G.	Schumann	G.
Fleming	G.	Rush	C.
Blanche	C.	Sanders	B.
Detrick	B.	Castner	H.
Slection	H.	Carswell	H.
DeCensere	H.	Allegher	B.
Waldbaiser	B.	Castner

Fox Hounds Race Meeting

SOMERVILLE — Officials of the Essex Fox Hounds Race Meeting, scheduled for Satur- day, Sept. 24th. at E. H. Ellis' Dhu Varren Farms at Far Hills, have been making extensive plans towards getting the course in top shape for the 40th running of this annual classic.

The meet, which is being run for the benefit of The Somer- set Hospital, is sanctioned by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. The com-

Oakwood Lanes Bowling

BORO MEN'S LEAGUE

	W	L
Beagle Bros.	3	0
Washington Dairy	2	1
Oakwood Lanes	2	1
Modern Barber Shop	2	1
Burd Realtors	1	2
Belvidere Recreation	1	2
Ford Furniture	1	2
St. Luke's	0	3

High individual single, Leo Makow- ski, 247; high individual series, Leo Makowski, 624; high team single, Oak- wood Lanes, 936; high team series, Oakwood Lanes, 2703.

TUNG-SOL WOMEN'S LEAGUE

	W	L
Grid	4	0
Stem	3	1
Sealex	3	1
Engineers	2	2
Filament	2	2
Age & Test	1	3
Parroll	1	3

STREAK BACKFIELD: ball team goes over some pla right: Jack Winters and Ber

WASHINGTON — Minus 1959 aces, linemen Bill Wand- ling, Henry Barends, George Armbrrecht, Vern Golini and Bob Johnson, and backs Steve Flynn, Bill Pulsinelli, Barry Crouse and Brad Burns, Ed Baker's Washington High School footballers opened pre- season drills for the coming campaign this past Thursday. Letter winners from last year's fine squad on hand are

Quoit League Meets Tuesday Night

WASHINGTON — A meeting of the Warren County Quoit League will be held Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. at Joe's Tavern, Rte. 69, a mile north of the Wash- ington traffic circle. All teams interested in joining the league for the 1960-61 season should have a representative at the meeting.

Dorney Park Races

ALLENTOWN, Pa. — A des- truction derby and a full pro- gram of stock car racing will be held at the one-fifth mile dustless macadam speedway at Dorney Park, Allentown, Pa., on Friday night, starting at 8:30.

The destruction derby, the second of 1960, will find Cookie Hauze, Allentown, five-time winner, seeking to extend his streak. There will be profes- sional race drivers behind the wheels of the destruction derby cars and the event will be held on the entire track.

The stock car show, the sea- son's 12th, will find the battle for point leadership in 1960 at a fever pitch. In the 11 shows held to date, there have been 10 different winners.

RETURN GAME

JOHNSONBURG — A return game between the Sheffield Farms and Westbrook Farms baseball teams, played Sunday afternoon on the Frelinghuysen school field, resulted in a victory for the Sheffield team by the score of 8 to 6.

ANDERSON

ANDERSON—Mr. and Mrs.